

Career & Technical Education Problem-Based Learning Integration Goals

1. Teachers develop a foundational understanding of the Engineering Design Process and how to integrate it into their Programs of Study.

2. Teachers discover connections between what they teach, other content areas, and project/problem-based learning. Teachers use these connections to integrate project/problem based learning into their curriculum.

3. Districts cultivate a mindset that expects all students to participate in project/problem-based learning.

